

Turkey to Go: Where to Buy Take-Out Thanksgiving Dinners

 Share |  Print

By Julyssa Lopez Published Thursday, November 19, 2009

Punk's Backyard Grill (2188 Annapolis Mall, Annapolis; 410-571-7744).

This casual Annapolis restaurant is offering appetizers and dessert. Starters are a mixed-green salad with applewood-smoked bacon, candied pumpkin seeds, green apples, and gorgonzola, tossed with apple-cider vinaigrette ($39 for a half pan that serves five; $75 for a full pan); and butternut-squash-and-root-vegetable bisque or smoky black-bean soup ($12.49 for a 32-ounce container that serves four to six). For dessert, there's pies, which serve six to eight people; options include apple-crumble ($3.49/slice, $17.99/whole), pumpkin ($2.99/slice, $11.99/whole), key-lime ($2.99/slice, $11.99/whole), and pecan ($17.99/whole). There's also pumpkin bread pudding ($3.59/slice, $14.99/whole) and strawberry/rhubarb cobbler ($17.99). Orders must be made by November 24, and pick up is November 25 from 11 to 9.